

The Hellenic Students Association invites you to experience the wonderful colors of Greece at a series of events this spring at Cornell. From Greek mythology to modern Greek history, from spices of the Middle East to tastes of Greek islands, from Rembetika songs to modern Greek music, this is Mythos 2006. Join us and live the Greek Myth at Cornell!

www.mythoscornell.com

Movie A Touch of Spice (Politiki Kouzina)	February 23 7:15pm	Willard Straight Hall	Cornell Cinema brings you the movie that was the ultimate smash hit in Greece. Comedy and drama, a journey between Istanbul &amp; Athens , a story about life and its spices. Not to be missed. FREE food will follow.
Theater Metamorphoses By Ovid	February 24 7:00 pm	Schwartz Theater	Straight from Broadway. Based on the epic work of Ovid, Metamorphoses retells the legends of King Midas, Cupid, and Aphrodite-but with a twist! A 3600-gallon pool of water will be constructed in Schwartz Theatre and ancient myths will be brought to new life. HSA organizes Q&A with the director before the play.
Workshop Greek Cooking	February 26 2:00 pm	Crossroads Life Center  604 E. Buffalo St.	People often construct images about "ethnic cuisines" such as "Greek food". This workshop will go beyond the stereotypes and feature dishes which are commonplace in parts of Greece, but not generally part of the customary Greek cuisine.
Discussion Panel The role of the Ancient Greek civilization in the Western world	February 27 5:00 pm	Kaufman Auditorium  Goldwin Smith Hall	Ancient Greek civilization has been immensely influential on the language, politics, educational systems, art and architecture of the modern Western world. Members of the Cornell Classics department will discuss these issues. Food will be provided.
Movie The Weeping Meadow	March 2 6:30 pm	Willard Straight Hall	Directed by the Greek master Theo Angelopoulos, The Weeping Meadow tells the story of two young refugees from Odessa through the difficult times of the 20 th century in Greece. A masterpiece you shouldn't miss!
Concert Rembetika: the blues of Greece	March 3 8:00 pm	Biotech Building	In the first part, settings of famous Greek poets with music by Theodorakis and Hatzidakis will be featured. In the second part, we will enjoy rembetika songs, the "blues of Greece". Internationally renowned, Mikrokosmos, and its lead singer, Grigoris Maninakis guarantee a great evening! Food will be provided.
Music &amp; Dance MYTHOS PARTY	March 5 7:00 pm	Big Red Barn	MYTHOS 2006 will end with a big party aiming to show how fun Greek culture is! FREE food will be provided.

Sponsored in part by GPSAFC, IES (The Mediterranean Initiative), Classics Department, NES, Cornell Cinema, Schwartz Center of the Performing Arts and private donors.